ble persons. The bid and guarantee should be signed plainly with the full name of each person.

The Postmaster General reserves the right to reject any bid which may be deemed extravagant; and also to disregard the bids of failing contractors and bidders. (Act of June 8, 1872, section 239.)

16. The bid should be scaled, subscribed "Mail Proposals, State of Nevada," addressed "Second Assistant Postmaster General, Contract Office." Bids of $5,000 per annum, and upward must be accompanied by a certified check, or draft, on some solvent National Bank, equal to 5 per cent, of the amount; also bids for service which now costs $5,000 or more per annum. Where the present pay is $5,000 or more, it is stated in the advertisement under the appropriate route.

15. The contracts are to be executed and returned to the Department by or before the last day of June, 1874, otherwise the accepted bidder will be considered as having failed, and the Postmaster General may proceed to contract for the service with other parties, according to law. Transfers of contracts, or of interest in contracts are forbidden by law, and consequently cannot be allowed. Neither can bids or interest in bids, be transferred or assigned to other parties. Bidders will therefore take notice that they will be expected to perform the service awarded to them through the whole contract term.

18. Section 249 of the act of June 8, 1871, pro-

Postmasters are also made to dismission of the office for acting as agents of contractors or bidders, with or without compensation, in any business, matter, or thing relating to the mail service. They are the trusted agents of the Department, and cannot consistently act in both
